SHERIDAN'S FIRST RIDE.

A John Gilpin Performance Which Showed Young Phil's Pluck.

The following story was told by the Rev. J. T. Headley, historian and biographer of many of the heroes of the war, in regard to a boyhood experience of General Sheridan: At five years of age he was playing near his home when some lads came along and amused themselves with the wide awake boy. A horse was feeding in an adjacent lot.

'Phil, would you like a ride?" they

"Yes. Give me one." In a few moments the boy was on the animal's back. The sudden and unceremonious mounting of the young rider startled the steed, and away he ran. "Whoa! Whoa!" shouted the lads,

One of the curious company, after securing the foaming animal, which had neither saddle nor bridle, inquired of the unterrified Phil:

"Who taught you to ride?" 'Nobody," answered the boy. "Did no one teach you how to sit on horse?" asked another.

"Oh, yes. Bill Seymour told me to hold on with my knees, and I did." "Wasn't you frightened?" "Nary a bit. I wanted to go farther, but the horse wouldn't go.
